

Positions: River Ranger

The Woonasquatucket River Watershed Council (WRWC) is seeking individuals with interest in landscaping and maintenance, and strong people skills, to fill River Ranger positions (18 + years old). River Rangers work with volunteer groups to maintain the parks and bike path along the Woonasquatucket River Greenway. River Rangers are stewards of the Greenway and are responsible for greeting people in the community and encouraging the appropriate use of this cherished outdoor space.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Maintain the 7-mile Greenway and assist in maintenance of parks near bike path;
- Tasks include: operating a lawn mower, line trimming, weeding and mulching, litter pick up, watering plants, sweeping, raking, river clean ups, tree pruning, fence repair, community outreach programs, graffiti removal, landscape installations and more;
- Follow equipment safety and maintenance procedures;
- Comply with all safety practices and procedures, including use of Personal Protective Equipment;
- Work a non-standard work week (some evenings and weekends as scheduled);

Minimum qualifications:

- Must be at least 18 y/o
- Able to work outdoors in all weather conditions

Preferred Qualifications:

- Spanish speaking
- Valid driver's license
- Living in close proximity to the Greenway in the neighborhoods of Smith Hill, Olneyville, Hartford, Manton, or have access to reliable transportation

Application Process: Submit application or resume via email to Clare Brown at cbrown@wrwc.org or Mail to WRWC River Rangers 45 Eagle St, Ste. 202 Providence, RI 02909.

The WRWC is a non-profit organization whose mission is to encourage, support, and promote the restoration and preservation of the watershed as an environmental, recreational, cultural and economic asset of the State of RI.

The Woonasquatucket River Greenway is a 7-mile bike path that follows the river, both on-road and off-road, from Providence to Johnston. The WRWC has worked to restore and create urban parks along the Greenway – Merino Park, Woony Adventure Park, Donigian Park, and Riverside Park. River Rangers work with the Police Department, Providence and Johnston Parks Department, the Providence Housing Authority, local organizations, businesses, churches, recreation centers, and community members to revitalize the parks, maintain the bike path, and educate and empower the watershed community.
